

The little ones just might enjoy a BDBK(Boardbook) so here are a few ideas

Bear in a Square

Bear Goes to Town

Bear on a Bike

Red Barn

Jamberry

Ezra Keats BDBKs

Sandra Boynton's BDBK such as Hippos go Beresk

Opposites

MooBaaLaLaLa

*Time for Bed

Eric Carle such as Brown Bear Brown Bear

Very Quiet Cricket

Very Busy Spider

Any of DK's Touch and Feel are particularly good for the 12-18month age group

The next age group are those that go to PBPB(Paper Back picture Books) or HCPB(Hard Cover Picture Books)

Giraffees Can't Dance (one of my favorites)

Jamberry

Giant Jam Sandwiches

Empty Pot

Peach and Blue

The Little Engine that Could

Prima Ballerina

Fancy Nancy

Doreen Cronin's Books such as Click Clack Moo

Olivia

Zen Shorts

Make Way For Ducklings

Bad Dog Marley

Madeline Books

Bear Snores On

Bear Wants More

Bill Peet Books

Jerry Pinkney books

Next group would probably be the K-2 or

Henry and Mudge books

Amber Brown

Amelia Bedelia

Frog and=2 0Toad

Andrew Lost (for the boys who like science)

Zack Files(humor)

Magic Tree House books by Mary Pope Osborne both the stories and the non-fiction companion books

A to Z Mysteries

Geronimo Stilton stories

Charming Pony Series particularly Perfect Pony

Judy Moody (an attitude but without the mouth)

Mercy Watson

Gooney Bird Green(a favorite)

Frindle "

Time Warp Trio(humor)

Next group would probably be 4th and 5th

Little House in the Big Woods

Little Princess

Secret Garden

Freddy to the Rescue

Main Street(a favorite)

Spiderwick Chronicles by holly Black and Tony Diterlizze

Susan Cooper's Dark is Rising Series starting with Over Sea Under Stone

Stealing Freedom

Olivia Kidney(favorite)

Molly Moon(favorite)

Wayne Batson's series(a local author and a middle school teacher)

Matt Christopher is an author who writes books for boys that are sports related stories as does Fred Bowen

Diary of a Whimpy Kid

Charlie Bone Series

World According to Humphrey

Roald Dahl books "Witches" an all boy book or BFG

Tale of Despereaux(soon to be a movie)

Tiger Rising

Because of Winn Dixie

Week in the Woods

Landry News

Indian in the Cupboard series

Lily's Crossing

Hoot

Flush

Dan Gutman writes some incredible sports related books my favorite is "Jackie and Me" about Jackie Robinson

Marguerite Henry writes some incredible horse classics such as Misty of Chincoteague

Brian Jacques' Redwall has a series that goes on forever and seems to work for a variety of ages

Gail Carson Levine and Tamora Pierce write great girl books

Holes

How about Middle School

Wrinkle in Time or Swiftly Tilting Planet or Wind in the Door

T A Barron's Merlin Series

Anne of Green Gables

Alex Rider Series (I'm a BIG Fan) starting with Stormbreaker to Point Blank to

James Bond Series as Silverfin

Recruit Series by Muchamore

Haddix particularly "Turnabout"

Pendragon series by MacHale

Mike Lupica's books sports related

Eragon

Eldest

Maniac McGee

Stargirl

High School

Several of the Middle School Authors are appropriate for the high school as are

Joan Bauer a great coming of age author "Rules of the Road" my serious favorite

Sarah Dessen is a fantastic author for girls" Truth About Forever" an incredible read even for adults

Walter Dean Myers who was an Air Force Chaplain writes some thought provoking books and the top of the list is "Monster"

Michael Crichton has some really interesting earlier books so let the boys explore some including "Andromeda Strain"

Clive Cussler is great

I hope this helps you with your selection

Another suggestion might be a book that you really enjoyed and would like to pass on
So many books and so little time

If you have a specific age and or gender that you are specifically looking for don't hesitate to call me I am more than happy to help 410-884-6892

Happy Shopping, Barbara